THE LOOK: Pared-back Shaker

THE DESIGNERS: Sophie Burke, Jennifer Milar

WHY WE LOVE IT: This cool, contemporary twist on the classic Shaker-style kitchen epitomizes current West Coast style. Simple black accents juxtaposed with more earthy, irregular-shaped bowls give the space personality. The result is a timeless kitchen that supports the needs of a busy family.

THE LOOK: Sweet Retreat

THE DESIGNERS: Ivan Quintana, Erica Schmidt

WHY WE LOVE IT: With its daybed, throw pillows and gauzy drapery, this meditation room's window seat evokes a riad's rooftop seating area. Antique corbels add old world architectural interest, and a thick rug, battered wood chest and prayer beads play up the bohemian charm.

THE LOOK: Serene Elegance

THE DESIGNERS: Richard Ouellette, Maxime Vandal

HOW IT BUILDS DRAMA: Soft tones of barely-there purple and putty grey have a lulling quality in this luxurious principal bedroom. An upholstered headboard, Chinoiserie-print drapery and the Venetian Fortuny chandelier deliver quiet opulence.

THE LOOK: Rustic Romance

THE DESIGNERS: Lorna Penner
Rick Penner

WHAT MAKES IT WORK: A wrought iron bed makes a charming centerpiece in this bedroom. Piles of pillows and a puddled bedskirt look laid-back while a collection of vintage prints adds a sense of history.
